

Camp Fitz-John Porter (Civil War Training Camp) Corresponds with the Vacuum Oil Site

Map Courtesy of the City of Rochester

Camp Fitz-John Porter
(Magnolia & Cottage Streets) 1860s ; later Vacuum Oil (birthplace of Exxon Mobil)

Riverview student housing

bicycle pathway along river

West side of Genesee River

LIGHTING
RAILING BENCHES
EXISTING BRIDGE
STRUCTURE

CONNECTIONS TO GENESSEE
RIVERWAY TRAIL
OVERLOOK & SEATING GATEWAY
CONCRETE DECK
EXISTING BRIDGE
STRUCTURE

Bausch and Lomb (linear) Park (follows former railroad Right Of Way) along east bank

University of Rochester campus near tennis courts : east side of river

Adaptive reuse of the historic Erie-Lackawanna Railroad Bridge over the Genesee River, unifying the east and west bank Genesee Riverway Trails. Provides alternative transportation options and connectivity between the University of Rochester and west bank city neighborhoods.